

Barry C-Net (Crowd Control Net)

The Barry C-Net is a crowd control fencing system made of premium quality components for long-lasting usage.

These nets have been installed at numerous World Cup ski races and at the Salt Lake Olympic Games. They are the reference in terms of durability and ease of installation.

The Barry C-Net is available in a pre-assembled system for fast and easy installation and storage, or as separate components for the budget-conscious.
